Thank Woul

Ok God, second time at this. Hopefully this is it, but solo this time. Thanks for showing me that my Leaps of Faith aren't in vain. Thank you for making all of this possible! I want to thank myself for all of this hard work I've put into the album, the videos, etc. Man...it's not easy... Freakin time consuming! But I love it. Thank you Magic for giving me the beat to 'In My Dreams' when I was 19. I'm pretty sure that's what started this whole solo thing for real for real, and I didn't even know it. I totally formed the album around that song lo!. You are an amazing producer. I just love your tracks! Thank you Crown Jones for our experience with Apollo's Interlude, and being able to produce some tracks for me on my solo album. I wish you all the best with your career. You have talent! Thank you Shawn for dealing with me and my crazy recording process. You are outstanding! I knew I wanted my album to sound good...but boy! It sounds even better than I expected. You can hear things that others can't hear (including myself). Thank you. Nate Bernard, thank you for being my DP for my music videos for the album. You have a great eye. Finally someone that can make my visions come to life! I've en joyed all the shoots we have to come.

You don't have to lean/depend on a man in order to be successful; educate yourself, work smart not hard; knowledge is power. You don't have to sit silent because you're trying to fit in and not rub people the wrong way; stand-out and stand for something...have purpose.
