[Chorus]
What am I doing here
It's not clear
You tell me
You want me near and it's sincere Every time you appear I can feel Emotions going into second gear

[Verse 1] We are from Two different sides of the track I'm a suburban girl With my designer bag But you be rollin' through In ya Cadillac With the candy paint And yo fitted hat But what would my daddy say If he knew about you You're not the type of guy He visions for my life But I can't be Worried about that It's something about you That keeps me coming back

[B-Section]
They say. opposites attract, but I never knew
Is that what's going on, between us two

[Chorus]

[Verse 2] My friends can't Believe that I'm with you They say it's just a phase Hope it's ending soon But they don't know The person that you are Judging books by covers Won't get you far Cuz you are intelligent Stay on top of your business like your confidence You're the perfect gentleman I told them To gone and sip ya tea I'm grown, don't question me When I get in after 3

[B-Section]
[Chorus]

My Own Mind

I'm me
I don't try to be
Anyone else
But myself
I've been living with me for all these years, so how you gonna come around and tell me how I feel
I know
Who I am
I have not Been programmed
You don't have your own mind, you're easily bought
But turn around and try to tell me I am lost

[Chorus]

[Verse 1] You try to tell me, who I am and who l wanna be But darling sweetie. I don't want to be no one but me You tell me I'm sick, that I need a mental fix I'm like yeah who you kidding, when are you gonna get to it Cuz it's you You're the fool You have, no clear view You think, everything, that they say is 100 truth But where is your proof, why you not findin' out for you

[B-Section]
You let Them tell you
What to say
And what to do

You follow trends
When you gone learn
When's this gonna end

[Chorus]

You don't even read all you watch is TV

How you gone have a 3rd eye when you can't even see the light
You are so blind 20/200 sight
Then you try to tell me what is wrong and what is right
I don't need
You coming to me
Tryna teach
Teach me nothing
See this ain't no minstrel show. I can't tap dance with these feet

[B-Section]
[Chorus]

I have, my own mind, I don't need your psychology

[Bridge]
I have my own mind. I own it and it's mine
Try that shit on someone else. I don't have the time
I have my own mind. I own it and it's mine
Try that shit on someone else. I don't have the time

[B-Section]
[Chorus]

Thank You

Umm. this was a very random EP, but it turned out to be so much better than I expected I want to thank Chicago for pissing me off enough and calling me satan. You were the start of the EP that made me write 'I Told You'. After that it was off to the races lol. See how you can pull good out of anything ... Many thanks to my Producer. Jason Aro of KloudNineMusic. For all of the beats. Dallas Team: Big thanks to Shawn Lunsford, my favorite Engineer! The rearrangements of the beats definitely earned you a Co-Producer credit. I want to thank myself for Writing all my lyrics and even doing a little Co-Producing. Also, I have to thank myself for the Photos and Graphics; a woman of many talents ... Many thanks to my lovely SLP Laura Toles and my Vocal Coach Damon Clark... been a long time coming. Atlanta Team: Huge thanks to Ms. Tiko Pink. Thank you for being my Vocal Producer and bringing things out of me I knew existed if I would stop being lazy... I guess lol. Andre Williams and DJ Demand... it's really been a long time coming. Thank you both for dealing with my 'ways'. I blame it on my father who spoiled me, and my super organized meticulous ways that the environment of being a self-employed business woman has groomed me to be. Hugs and kisses! ... Thank you to Amonte Mickie for Engineering the EP. We had a rough start, but we got it together ... And yes of course... this wouldn't have been possible without God. You are Life!

Shoutouts!

My favorite part...shoutout time! Heyyyy to my parents, my siblings, my family, my best friends, the homies and my co-workers. A huge shoutout to everyone who has supported thus far and will continue to. So much love goes out to each and every single one of ya'll! Shoutouts to Texas. Yes I was raised in Cali, but I have to show love to my birthplace and where I currently reside. Every time I leave the country, there's still no place like home (Dallas). EJ & Demi, hope we can make something happen on the next EP. Ya'll just took forever in getting anything to me. EJ I know you still have my money for that feature...[II let you make it though lo!. Much success to both of you! Oh my...you know it wouldn't be complete without showing all my love to my babyluvs. You guys keep me going, ya'll are the definition of Joy. Heyyyy to all the people who listen to my music, and to the people that will listen and tell a friend. I can't wait to meet you all! And to all my Multicultural girls and my Suburban chicks...! love ya'll...! am ya'll.

With this EP, I have moved on from Coup d'Etat 🦽 , but I have to say a few thank yous. I want to thank the Program Directors at the FM, Satellite, Internet and College radio stations that showed me love. I used to dream about being on the radio, it's kind of crazy once it happens 🙂 . Shoutouts to the blogs that posted anything regarding me. I see ya'll, and it's duly noted. 🧘
